“SOME WAR MEMORIALS IN MERTON”

Through demolition, fire and other causes some War Memorials have disappeared and others, mainly through weathering of the stonework, are now illegible and this list is aimed at providing a permanent record of those remaining in the London Borough of Merton.

Unfortunately some Memorials may not have come to the notice of the compiler but any such brought to his notice will be included in addenda sheets most willingly.

It should be emphasised that the record is one of Memorials, not a record of the Fallen who are officially recorded by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission.

The help of the Borough Librarian and his staff at the Wimbledon Reference Library, of the incumbents of Churches, of the Headmasters and mistresses of Schools, and of many other people in compiling the record is acknowledged with much gratitude.

WIMBLEDON WAR MEMORIAL, Park Side, Wimbledon Common.

THE MONUMENT

The Monument which stands on the green opposite Marryat Road, consists of an obelisk surmounting a pedestal which is designed with a pediment on the two principal faces, finishing with scrolls, and embracing on the front towards the town a cartouche with a shield bearing the cross of St. George and, on the other front, a lion's head encircled with a wreath of bay leaves, the whole is mounted on a platform of five steps.

On the front towards the town the die of the pedestal has a panel with a relief in bronze of a figure of Peace, holding in one hand a palm branch and in the other a victor's wreath. On a panel below is the inscription "Invictis Pax". On the other front of the pedestal is the dedicatory inscription in a sunk panel:-

" In honoured memory of the men of Wimbledon who gave their lives for their King and Country in the Great War 1914 – 1918. "

On the side of the pedestal towards the Common is the following inscription:-

" All these were honoured in their generation and were the glory of their time. "

And on the side towards the Putney Road:-

" In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die;
yet is their hope full of immortality "

The obelisk bears on the two principal faces, at half the height, a victor's wreath of bay leaves and, from the capital depend festoons of fruit and flowers. On the summit is a cross.

The monument, which is of Portland stone, of exceptional hardness, was executed by Messrs. Dove Bros, of Islington, from the design of Sir T.G. Jackson, Bart., M.A., R.A. The bronze tablet was modelled by Mr. C.L. Hartwell, A.R.A. and cast by Messrs. Burton of Thames Ditton. The carving was executed by the firm of Messrs. Farmer and Brindley of London, the principal carver being Mr. Lane.

The unveiling ceremony by Mr. Joseph Hood, M.P. takes place at three o'clock tomorrow (Saturday 5th November, 1921).

(Wimbledon News 4th November, 1921)

The monument is also described and illustrated in "Building News" No. 3505 dated 10th March, 1922.

INSCRIPTIONS ADDED :

South Face:

" In honoured memory of the men and women of Wimbledon who gave their lives serving in His majesty's forces during the Second World war 1939 – 1945 "

NORTH FACE

" In honoured memory of the civilians of Wimbledon who lost their lives in the Second World War 1939 – 1945 "

WIMBLEDON WAR MEMORIAL (CONTD.)

“ At the end of the great war of 1914 – 1918 a public meeting was held at the Baths Hall, and a war Memorial Committee was formed representing all sections of the community, to determine the most suitable means of perpetuating the memory of the men, and one woman, who fell in the war.

Many suggestions were made, but those which met with general acceptance were that a suitable monument should be erected, that financial help should be given to the two local hospitals and that a record of Wimbledon men and women who served in the war should be compiled. ”

(The Mayor, Alderman Dudley Stuart, speaking at the Unveiling ceremony)

“ No one who has heard the particulars given by the Mayor can fail to be impressed by the splendid record of the men and women of the Borough of Wimbledon in the Great War. We know that, including one woman, a Nurse who was killed at her post, nearly 1,000 from this borough made the great sacrifice.

(Mr. Joseph – later Sir Joseph – Hood, M.P. speaking at the Unveiling ceremony)

The large number of casualties did not permit the inscription of names on the Memorial but they were written in a suitable volume which was placed on a lectern in the vestibule of the Town Hall, the pages being turned daily. Unfortunately the volume was stolen some years ago but a list of the fallen is given in “a record of the honoured men of Wimbledon and Merton who fell in the great war 1914-1918” (Mitchell, Hughes & Clarke, 1921) a copy of which is held by the Wimbledon Library.

A list of all who served in that war – comprising about 9,000 – was also compiled for retention at the Library for reference, but it has not been traced.

“ I desire on behalf of the Wimbledon War Memorial Committee, to express to Mr. Tyrrell Giles and his colleagues, the conservators of the Wimbledon and Putney Commons, our sincere thanks for placing at our disposal this admirable site. The enclosure will be laid out as a garden open to the public at all times.”

(“The Mayor’s speech at the unveiling)

WAR RECORD AND MUSEUM FOR WIMBLEDON AND MERTON.

A Committee consisting of representatives of the John Evelyn Club (now the Wimbledon Society) and the Public Library was organized under the above heading. At the first meeting on 18th April, 1918, it was resolved that the Wimbledon Museum Committee, established by the John Evelyn Club, should be responsible for the collection of material objects of the war and that the committee of the Public Library should be responsible for the collection and preservation of literary material relating to the war. It was also resolved that a roll of honour be compiled.

KING'S ROYAL RIFLE CORPS.

MEMORIAL ON WIMBLEDON COMMON.

Stone monument on square stone base approximately 4ft. 6 ins. High.

North face

Badge of the King's royal Rifle Corps.

South Face

Bronze plaque inscribed:

TO THE MEMORY OF ALL RANKS OF THE RESERVE BATTALION
OF THE KING'S ROYAL RIFLE CORPS WHO TRAINED HERE AND AFTERWARDS GAVE THEIR LIVES FOR KING AND COUNTRY
1916 – 1918

The Memorial was erected in 1922 by private subscription and is maintained by the Borough Council. It is not recognised as an official regimental Memorial but the following note has been supplied by Colonel I.H. McCausland from the Regimental Headquarters at Winchester :

“ An entry in the Miscellaneous notes in the 1923 edition Of the KRRC Chronicle, which refers to the 22nd Bn. The 22nd bn. was raised by the British Empire League as a Pioneer Bn. in the Spring of 1916 and was recruited largely from men from London Mercantile Houses. Its early training was carried out at Wellingborough and in May the Bn. Moved to Wimbledon and became 110th Training Reserve. Most of the men who were in the 22nd. took part in the first Battle of the Somme. Such is the short history of this unit of the Regiment, but their spirit still lives and members of the Battalion still meet annually at an Old Comrade's dinner. ”

“ WIMBLEDON ' S OWN ”

The following paragraph appears in “Notes of Local Activities during the Great War 1914 - 1918” (published with “a Record of the honoured men of Wimbledon and Merton who fell in the Great War 1914-1918”

– Mitchell, Hughes & Clarke, 1921) :

“Wimbledon's Own ” (the 190th Bde., R..F.A)

The last voluntary force to be raised in the United Kingdom during the Great War, the very last unit recruited to complete “Kitchener's Army”.

Raised by the Mayor of Wimbledon, Alderman W. Barry, at the request of the War Office.

Embarked at Southampton 4th May 1916 with the 41st Division en route for the Western Front under the command of Lt. Col. C.F. Stewart.

The unit trained daily on Wimbledon Common.

HEADQUARTERS AT WIMBLEDON.

The following is an extract from the "Wimbledon News" 30th April, 1904

THE WAR MEMORIAL AT THE LIBRARY

UNVEILING CEREMONY

On Thursday evening at the Free Library the ceremony of unveiling the memorial to the officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the 2nd V.B. East Surrey regiment who served in South Africa during the War took place.

* * * * *

The men of the battalion under the command of Captain Medill were lined up in front of the building and Lieut. General Kent, who performed the ceremony, was received by a guard who were stationed in the building under Captain Bagshaw. The officers present included

Captain Longstaff and Lieutenant Franklin Adams.

** * * * *

Colonel Horsman Bailey in opening the proceedings recalled the circumstances in connection with the volunteering of the men for the War, saying that altogether 117 officers and men out of the 451 of the Battalion had served in one branch or another of the Forces. He alluded to the enthusiasm which had prevailed at the time and the help which the Battalion had received from the ladies of Wimbledon and others and to the formation of the Wimbledon War Fund. The last act of the Committee of the Fund had been to hand him the balance, requesting that part of it should be spent on a tablet recording the names of the men who had fought in the War. They had now carried out the request and through the kindness of the Free Library Committee the tablet had been found a place on the walls of the building.

General Kent said they were met there through the kindness of the Free Library Committee to unveil the tablet – or, he would say, roll of honour – of a goodly contingent from that Regiment who had won so many glorious honours in South Africa. No more suitable place for such a Memorial could be found than a free library which was open to everybody. The tablet would there be a perpetual reminder of what their good fellows had done in South Africa and of how much they owed them.

General Kent unveiled the tablet, when the men gave a General Salute and the band played the Regimental March.

WIMBLEDON CEMETERY, Gap Road.

STONE CROSS

Inscription:

“This cross of sacrifice is one in design and intention with those which have been set up in France and Belgium and other places throughout the world where our dead of the Great War are laid to rest.”
“THEIR NAME LIVETH FOR EVERMORE”

(NOTE: Originally a bronze sword was mounted on the front of the Cross but this has disappeared.)
NOTE: The Sword has now been replaced (1988)

THE WARRIOR CHAPEL

Dedicated in 1920.

Architect – Sir Thomas Jackson, Bt., R.A.

Panel at the West entrance to the Chapel:-

The Warrior Chapel
A Thanksgiving to Almighty God and a Tribute to the Men of Wimbledon who died that England might live
A.D. 1914-1918.

Above the same entrance:-

“Death is swallowed up in Victory”
(Note: this inscription has disappeared)

North, South and West walls, panelled in oak, carry bronze plaques upon which the names of 172 service-men of the 1914-1918 War, mostly with dates of death and ages, are recorded.

Full details are included in “Monumental Inscriptions in the Church and Churchyard of St. Mary’s, Wimbledon” (A.W. Hughes Clarke, Mitchell, Hughes & Clarke, 7 Milford Lane, Strand, London, W.C.2. 1934. pp. 130-137.

(Note: Hughes Clarke includes – p.131 – “on a shelf below the plaques on the South wall:

JACOBI DONALD ALLEN BELL qui obiit March 21 , 1918”

but there is no indication that this was a Service casualty and the inscription has disappeared.)

Additional Names

BRASS PLAQUE:-

This Chapel is also dedicated to the Memory of Members of this Parish who died in the Second World War and to all those who give (sic) their lives in the Service of their Country."

Framed scroll and letter:-

G.V R.

He whom this Scroll commemorates was numbered among those who, at the call of King and Country, left all that was dear to them, endured hardness, braved danger and finally passed out of the sight of men by the path of duty and self-sacrifice, giving up their own lives that others might live in freedom.

Let those who come after see to it that his name be not forgotten.

CAPTAIN ROBERT ALISTER FIELD, M.C.
Yorkshire Regiment.

Buckingham Palace

I join with my grateful people in sending you this Memorial of a brave life given for others in the Great War.

GEORGE, R.I.

(Note: Captain Field is also included on one of the Plaques on the South wall)

THE SACRED HEART CHURCH, Edge Hill, Wimbleton

The following paragraph appears on page 35 of "Portrait of a Church" by Richard Milward, M.A. :

" In 1919, at the back of the North aisle, a Pieta was erected as a memorial to all the College boys killed in the fighting. The marble statue was the gift of Mrs. Smail of Donhead Lodge, but she strongly objected to the 'inadequate' oak surround which was meant to have the names of the dead inscribed on it. Several important members of the congregation agreed with her and they subscribed to a large stone Calvary, designed by Mr. Walters, which was put up outside the Church to the north of the concourse as the Parish War Memorial. In 1955, however, it was destroyed when a large elm tree fell across it during a violent storm. "

A photograph of the memorial appears in Mr. Milward's book.

NOTE.

THE TABLETS, ERECTED BY PUBLIC SUBSCRIPTION IN 1921, WERE ORIGINALLY ON THE WALL OF THE OLD CHURCH NOW DEMOLISHED. THE ADJACENT CHURCH HALL HAS RECENTLY BEEN CONVERTED INTO A NEW CHURCH AND THE TABLETS HAVE BEEN PLACED ON THE WALL OF THE VESTIBULE AND RE-LETTERED.

ORIGINALLY THE TEXT "GREATER LOVE HATH NO MAN" APPEARED AT THE FOOT OF BOTH TABLETS BUT THIS WAS ERASED AFTER THE SECOND WORLD WAR SO THAT THE NAMES A.E. GROVES AND G.A. WYBROW COULD BE TRANSFERRED TO THE LEFT HAND TABLET AND THE NAMES OF THE TWO CASUALTIES OF THE SECOND WAR COULD BE ADDED TO THE RIGHT HAND TABLET.

THE ORGAN IN THE OLD CHURCH, ALSO GIVEN AS A WAR MEMORIAL, HAS BEEN REMOVED.

ETERNAL REST GRANT UNTO THEM O LORD
AND LET PERPETUAL LIGHT SHINE UPON THEM

THEY WHOM THIS SCROLL COMMEMORATES WERE NUMBERED AMONG THOSE WHO,
AT THE CALL OF KING AND COUNTRY, LEFT ALL THAT WAS DEAR TO THEM, ENDURED HARDNESS, FACED DANGERS
AND FINALLY PASSED OUT OF THE SIGHT OF MEN BY THE PATH OF DUTY AND SELF-SACRIFICE, GIVING UP THEIR OWN LIVES THAT OTHERS MIGHT LIVE IN FREEDOM.

LET THOSE WHO COME AFTER SEE TO IT THAT THEIR NAMES BE NOT FORGOTTEN.

TO PERPETUATE THE MEMORY OF THEIR GLORIOUS SACRIFICE THE ALTAR
AND THE SANCTUARY WINDOW WERE ERECTED IN THE ADJOINING CHAPEL.

RUTLISH SCHOOL

1914 – 1918 WAR MEMORIAL NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS, DESIGNED BY THE COUNTY ARCHITECT, WERE OPENED AT WATERY LANE, MERTON PARK IN 1957 REPLACING MUCH OLDER BUILDINGS WHICH HAD BEEN GREATLY DAMAGED BY ENEMY ACTION IN THE SECOND WORLD WAR. THE MEMORIAL TO THE FALLEN OF THE 1914-1918 WAR, UNVEILED IN 1921, WAS TRANSFERRED FROM THE ASSEMBLY HALL IN THE OLD BUILDINGS TO THE REAR WALL OF THE NEW DINING HALL.

THE MEMORIAL SCREEN, DESIGNED BY J.S. BROCKLESBY, A.R.I.B.A., COMPRISES SEVEN BLUE PAINTED PANELS SIX OF WHICH BEAR THE NAMES OF THE FALLEN IN GOLD LETTERING, THE SEVENTH, CENTRAL PANEL, BEARING THE SCHOOL CREST AND THE FOLLOWING DEDICATION ALSO IN GOLD.

IN PRAISE OF GOD
AND IN PROUD AND AFFECTIONATE RECOLLECTION OF THOSE OLD BOYS AND MASTERS OF THE RUTLISH SCHOOL WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES FOR KING AND COUNTRY IN THE GREAT WAR
1914 – 1919
